POPPERS DON'T CAUSE

AIDS !!!

Recently released test results now rule out the theory that nitrite-based odorants were somehow related to the outbreak of AIDS in the United States.

Joseph F. Miller, President of Great Lakes Products, Inc., the nation's largest manufacturer of nitrite-based odorants, has told the PATLAR GAZETTE that the Assistant Director of the Center for Infectious Disease (a part of the Centers for Disease Control in Atlanta), Dr. James Durran, invited him to Atlanta in late November of last year to discuss the work being done by CDC relative to its AIDS investigations.

According to Miller, whose company manufactures the most popular brands of nitrite-based odorants HARDWARE, QUICKSILVER, and RAM, the early association of nitrite odorants and AIDS never had any basis in fact.

"We were pleased to have had the opportunity to meet with officials of the CDC in November," said Miller. "We were briefed in several areas, including recent and current animal studies, and the data clearly show that no association exists between nitrite-based odorants and AIDS."

Miller's and the CDC's position was reinforced by an article in the highly respected medical journal, Medical World News, which printed the following paragraph as part of a significant article on AIDS in its December 6, 1982 issue: "But one etiologic possibility does seem to have been ruled out. CDC case-control findings along with preliminary results of animal studies have apparently acquitted nitrites."

Simultaneously, an extensive article on the subject of AIDS in the November 16, 1982 issue of a prestigious Canadian journal, The Medical Post, quoted CDC officials as telling the medical journal that there had been a "...small association with nitrites but we don't think it is important."

In the same article, Dr. Paul Volberding, Chief of Oncology at San Francisco

General, says that he does not think that the nitrites have much involvement in AIDS and, if they do have an immunosuppressive action, it's not very profound.

And, although his company does not advocate the misuse of inhalants, Miller says the company is greatly relieved to know that recent Government studies clearly show that such misuse poses no health hazard.

"We had designated a significant amount of money to private research in this area since mid-1981 when the AIDS problem first appeared in the Gay community," he says. "But, our research did not include animal studies which were the best way to actually test the effects of direct concentrated inhalation of our products; none of our research in the area of AIDS/nitrites, however, ever indicated that nitrites were a factor at all."

"Just as the manufacturers of children's crayons recognize that their crayons may be eaten and therefore

Rep. Burton's Death Great Loss

The gay community lost a good friend with the recent death of Representative Phillip Burton (D-CA), a leading congressional advocate for civil rights and fairness for gay people.

Few have understood legislative strategies so well and been able to accomplish so much to ensure justice and human dignity for all Americans as Representative Burton did. He was a man who accomplished things to benefit all Americans.

In the last Congress, it was Phillip Burton who helped secure a record number of co-sponsors for the national gay and lesbian civil rights bill. In this Congress, he had already begun planning how to expand the co-sponsorship base and move the gay rights bill forward, how to secure critical research funding for Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), and how to defeat the anti-gay McDonald Amendment to Legal Services. The death of Congressman Burton could seriously set back these efforts.

His passing is a great tragedy for all of us concerned with civil rights, human dignity, and equal justice for all people.

Attendant Sues Airline

A suit by Allen Chamberlin, a flight attendant, was filed in Sacramento Superior Court against Frontier Airlines. Mr. Chamberlin seeks reduced-air-travel benefits for his life partner of nine years, Mr. Joe Shields. The lawsuit alleges that Frontier Airlines has refused to provide Mr. Chamberlin with the same employee benefits it provides its heterosexual employees. The reduced-air-travel benefits are an integral part of the compensation package along with wages, health benefits, and pension benefits received by airline employees.

The law firm of Metrailler, Langenkamp & Buscho is representing Mr. Chamberlin in his lawsuit. Attorney Carolyn Langenkamp explained the suit as follows: "In his lawsuit, Mr. Chamberlin alleges that Frontier Airlines discriminates against its gay employees because it conditions reduced-air-travel benefits on a status (marriage) which they are unable to attain.

"The lawsuit also charges Frontier Airlines with violating the California Constitutionally protected right of privacy. Frontier Airlines conditions the right to reduced-air-travel benefits on how an individual makes private decisions about living arrangements, sexuality, and personal commitments.

"Other airlines provide similar benefits in a more equitable manner. Some airlines allow each employee to list one person who receives a 'companion pass,' thus giving each employee an opportunity to use the benefits without having to reveal the nature of the relationship involved."

Currently, Frontier Airlines allows its heterosexual employees' spouses to fly free or at greatly reduced rates. It also provides reduced air travel rates to household dependents of its employees. However, Frontier Airlines refuses to provide these same benefits to employees who are in relationships with members of the same sex.

Mr. Chamberlin made the following statement: "I am in a stable committed relationship of nine years duration. I have been trying for four years to get my partner the same benefits heterosexual airline employees enjoy. We've tried every possible avenue to find a mature compromise with the airline. But they've forced us to give up our remaining privacy by going to court."

The humpy man shown both above and on the front page of this edition is Mr. Sal Guange, a male stripper. Following is a recent interview with Sal which was conducted for PATLAR GAZETTE by photographer Eddie Van, who also took both pictures.

EDDIE VAN: Sal, what does it feel like to be a male stripper?

SAL GUANGE: Well, it's very stimulating and exciting for one thing. I become an audience's living fantasy. I have their complete attention--I have eye-to-eye contact with all kinds of people from all walks of life, male and female--because I'm playing with sexuality as a tool. Also, I use dance, music, and unusual costumes as an opportunity to create different roles for myself, much as an actor does.

EV: Sal, you worked at "Soap," an all-male nightclub revue in San Francisco. Did you enjoy working for an all-female audience?

SG: Yes, I enjoyed doing the show very much. The audience was incredible. Every woman was different in her reactions, every one of them gave me fabulous support, and I learned things about women I never knew even existed. They're fantastic, and they're gutsy, and they're all ready to have some good clean fun.

EV: Have you ever worked for an all-male audience?

SG: Yes. I do private parties--birthday parties, stag parties. At these parties I pop out of a box sometimes, sort of a surprise package. I work out of Adventure Studios in San Francisco, but I can travel anywhere in the country.

EV: How long have you been working for Adventure Studios?

SG: I've been working for them for five years, both as a male stripper and a photographic model.

EV: Sal, since you have appeared in numerous publications as a centerfold model, and you've already told us that you enjoy your male-stripping career, what do you feel lies ahead for you?

SG: I think the opportunities for me are limitless. Being a centerfold model has aided me in being noticed by millions of people, and now I'm going to take the opportunity to go forward.

EV: What opportunities do you feel have come forth from being a centerfold model?

SG: I have been asked to do films, which gives me the opportunity to act again. One of my favorite memories is of a production of West Side Story. I worked in NYC. I'd like to further my career by doing more acting.

EV: In what area would you like to use your acting ability?

SG: Well, television commercials, as a start.

EV: Are you going to continue to do male stripping?

SG: Whatever opportunity presents itself, I will be there. But my first love is acting. And for me, male stripping is a form of acting.

EV: Looking back over your career, is there anything you would change if you could?

SG: No, I like the way my life has been. It has been one great big party, one great big celebration.

EV: Sal, if somebody wanted to reach you, how would they go about it?

SG: They could contact me through my agent at (415) 441-1500.

EV: Thank you for your time, Sal. We'll be watching for your centerfolds and your commercials.

MISCELLANEA

Just in case any of you readers have ideas about lol-ing around Italian beaches this summer in the altogether, take heed to the following traveler's tip. Recently, Italy's Supreme Court ruled that while bare bosoms on the beach are permissible for both men and women, nudity below the waist is quite another matter, still definitely not nice. And what's more, if you take it all off on the beach, either for swimming or sunbathing, (and one would assume also for any of the other fun reasons that fun-loving gay people are apt to think of) you can be fined $285 and sentenced to a whole month in jail because total nudity in public is likely to cause "unease, repulsion...or erotic excitement in an observer of normal sensibility." Definitely a word to the wise.

* * * * *

Still another tip for you gay travelers. In Bucharest, Romania, there's a new, very official government decree which prohibits the possession or use of typewriters by people who have a criminal record or who pose a danger to public order or state security. We understand that gay activity of any sort is a criminal offense in Romania, and, furthermore, that an openly gay person might well be considered to be a very great danger to public order or state security in that country. (We envision riots, for instance.) So, if you plan to visit Romania this summer and if you plan to take along your typewriter, or to beg, borrow, steal, or rent one while you're there, maybe you'd better not. Romanian jails have a nasty reputation, and possession of a typewriter just doesn't seem worth it, to us anyhow. So be careful. Discretion is definitely in order.

Up in Rogue River, OR, a group of cute high-school girls recently invited a male stripper to do his thing for them at a surprise party for one of their 18-year-old friends. Apparently, being literary types, they scheduled the cultural event in the high school's library. (Where else, I ask you?) Anyhow, Rogue River apparently wasn't ready for this type of action, and poor Mr. Moore and equally poor Ms. Lockwood, Principal and Assistant Principal respectively, were at least temporarily relieved of their duties by Mr. Gilliland, the Superintendent. I'd be willing to bet that Mr. Gilliland: (1) Is an old grouch; and (2) Has no sense of humor.

And while we're talking about educators, in Sacramento, three real nice-sounding people recently got in what promises to be big, big trouble. Big, big trouble over nothing much, at least in so far as we can see. Mr. and Ms. Benton, along with Ms. Gitthens, simply got themselves in a mess. Lilly Law has accused the trio of being naughty, like for instance performing sado-masochistic rituals for pay. (Lilly called that "maintaining a house of prostitution.") So what's such a big deal about a little itty bit of sado-masochisim you ask? Well, it just so happens that Mr. and Ms. Benton are (were?) prominent professional educators affiliated with the highly regarded Elk Grove Unified School District just outside of Sacramento. Mr. Benton is (was?) a very successful football coach. Ms. Benton is (was?) coordinator of the school district's policies toward equal treatment of women in sports and other activities; it is said that she was high on the list for a principalship. The third party, Ms. Gitthens, is (was?) also an educator; last year she worked in an elementary school special-education program. Our hearts go out to these unfortunate people. Somehow, something about the whole thing sounds sort of fishy to us. If the three hadn't been educators, would Lilly have reacted so sternly? One wonders.

CABBAGE PATCH

By Hedda Khabajh

As any regular reader of this column must have noticed, I tend to like recipes that will feed six to eight people. While most of our gay households are probably less than that, these dishes can be used for entertaining, and the leftovers, with nary an exception, are as good if not better than the original meal.

This month here is another stew which would be very average were it not for that deft touch of adding some West African flavoring.

INGREDIENTS:

- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1 1/4 lbs. boneless chuck, cut in 1-in. cubes
- 2 cups beef bouillon
- 1/4 cup chunk-style peanut butter
- 1 medium onion, sliced
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons water
- 1 large tomato cut in wedges
- cooked rice

Heat the oil in a large skillet over medium heat. Add the beef cubes and brown on all sides, turning as needed. Add half (1 cup) the bouillon. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer for 45 minutes. Add remaining bouillon. Gradually stir in the peanut butter. Add onion slices and the pepper. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat and simmer until meat is tender, about 45 minutes. If necessary, add additional water. Blend the cornstarch with the two tablespoons of water until smooth. Gradually stir into the stew. Bring to a boil and boil one minute, stirring constantly while the sauce is thickening. Add the tomato wedges and heat through.

Serve over cooked rice. For a salad take the leaves from mustard greens, the leaves from chard, and spinach leaves, tear them and toss with an oil and vinegar dressing to which has been added some garlic, a pinch of red pepper, 2 sliced hot chillies which have been seeded and cut into long thin strips. Crusty bread or rolls go well with this meal, if you want the added calories.

FAUX PAS

By Dr. Ed. E. Kett

Dear Dr. Kett:

I like to smoke pot, and whenever I'm invited to a dinner party, I like to bring along a handful of joints and turn everyone on. Pot can make even the weirdest food taste indescribably delicious. It also loosens everyone up and I find I pick up more tricks when everyone is stoned.

Recently a friend invited me to a large dinner party. Since the host (whom I didn't know) was busy in the kitchen, I asked my friend if the host allowed pot smoking in his home. My friend said he'd been to parties there before where everyone smoked pot. Naturally I flicked my Bic. The dinner was a rousing success as far as I was concerned, but now I hear that the host (who was smoking too) was livid that I'd turned his guests on, and I won't find myself invited back to his home for dinner ever again. Was I wrong not to ask the host's permission before I toked? Ever,

Nicki

Dear Nicki,

Of course, you should have asked the host personally if he wanted his guests floating on air; and if the party was small enough, all of the guests present should have been asked if they approved of your little peccadillo. Just because pot smoking was allowed at one party does not mean that it is allowed at all parties. There are times when it is best to have everyone relatively sober--especially if you're trying to impress your boss with your good judgement. On the other hand, once a guest has turned everyone on, what's a host to do but join in? Still, as a host, it is disheartening to spend all day preparing a fabulous feast only to find one's guests growing more fond of each other than they are of the food. Sincerely,

Edwards Endicott Kett

GRNL

The Gay Rights National Lobby (GRNL) is calling for all members of Congress to support a new bill introduced by Representative Henry Waxman (D-CA), which could pour as much as $40 million into national public health emergencies like AIDS.

The Public Health Emergency Act would establish a special fund equal to one percent of the National Institute of Health's (NIH) total budget (about $40 million would be set aside).

The secretary of Health and Human Services would determine what constitutes an emergency, and then oversee the expedited allocation of emergency funds.

This would by pass the complicated, year-long process required for NIH to fund outside medical research. It currently takes NIH at least one year to fund any research proposal. The fund would be replenished each year to bring it up to the one percent total figure.

TAURUS (April 21-May 20)--Stop handing out all that bull about you're being so tough. Who are you fooling? Venus is your ruling planet. Let someone with a soft touch handle your soft spot.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20)--Travel figures in your future. But when that certain someone murmurs something about French and Greek, they're probably talking about your geography, not the Mediterranean's. Don't play dumb.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)--Nothing comes between you and your Calvins except, of course, the cream of the crop. So take your pick of the creme de la creme. They're all drooling over your right now.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)--So you've got spring fever? Relax. You've worked long and hard (as usual) all winter. You deserve a rest. You've been so generous lately--let them do you for a change.

VIRGO (Aug 23-Sep 22)--Cut the kid stuff. You can't have your way all the time. A loved one may test your sense of fair play. Don't pick up your balls and go home.

LIBRA (Sep 23-Oct 22)--Yes, your life's been dismal lately; but when they said life's a banquet, they weren't taking about TV dinners. It's up to you to get out and take what's yours. Don't settle for leftovers.

SCORPIO (Oct 24-Nov 22)--You're in good hands this month. You've been looking for a slow hand to give you all the right strokes. Now you'll find it. An Aries will get a firm grip on you.

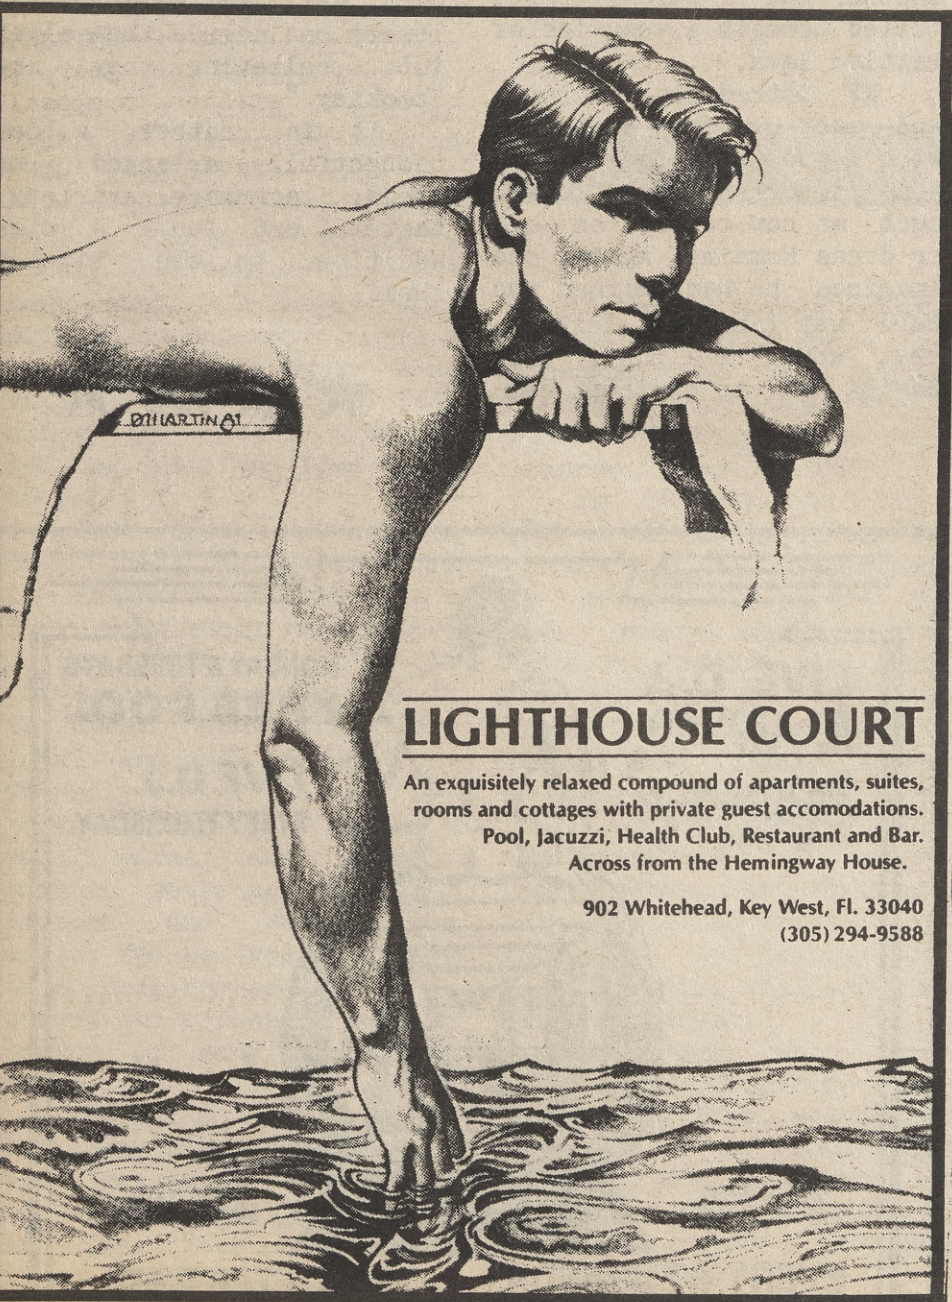

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23-Dec 21)--That slow-moving soap opera called "your love life" picks up the pace when a mysterious stranger enters your life the first of the month. This new plot line could be a real cliffhanger. Tune in next month.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan 20)--You'll find your horizons expanding in every direction when the moon enters your sign at month's end. Try to focus all the energy in one area. A touch of red on the 8th may lead to romance.

AQUARIUS (Jan 21-Feb 19)--They don't call you a water sign for nothing, and at month's end, you'll have everyone's mouth watering over you. Don't be chintzy with your affections. There's enough to go around.

PISCES (Feb 20-Mar 20)--Talk about fidelity! You and that special someone are getting along perfectly right now. No adjustment of your set is necessary. Your woofers and tweeters are perfectly balanced.

ARIES (Mar 21-Apr 20)--The archer hits the bull's eye this month. On the 5th you meet up with a Taurus who's right on target. You know it's love when your quiver quivers.

Is anyone out there suffering from insomnia lately? If so, you might try reading certain books in bed. (That is, of course, if you haven't anything better to do in bed.) The books, which are being pushed by none other than the Moral Majority's Jerry Falwell and friends, are reputed to be excellent soporifics. Try them; we'll guarantee you that they tend to be a more efficient and a lot safer than traditional sleeping pills. They are: (1) Phyllis Schlafly: the Sweetheart of the Silent Majority by Carol Felsenthal, (2) The Right to Live; the Right to Die by C. BOOK REVIEW

THE GAY OF COOKING
(by The Kitchen Fairy)

Fairy Publications
Box 450, Laguna Beach, CA
189pp. $10.95

Reviewed by Jay Harrison

Beneath a gloss of camp talk, which at last middle-aged fairies will recognize with a surge of nostalgia, having thought the art dead, here lurks an easy-to-follow, practical yet inspired guide to good cooking.

More in the tradition of Beard than Child, The Kitchen Fairy (hereinafter KF) shares, from a lifetime of collecting and eating, his favorite recipes, from Cock Tails and Whore d'oeuvres to desserts: "Every swisher loves his sweets." The bachelor, the newly wed, or the pro will encounter new delights, or at least variations on themes once considered exhausted.

KF assumes that everyone has--as often as possible--other things to do besides cook and has so arranged his book with a principle in mind, raised to cardinal importance: given the choice, any fairy had rather be in bed. But he also recognizes that good eating and drinking is often the way to a man's parts and must be dealt with soon or late. Better inventively prepared fresh food than another frozen quiche. Better Italian Faggetti than another wad of sticky pasta buried beneath a vesuvius of bottled lava.

KF introduces his book, and each of its sections, with a modest preface giving some important basic data, such as how to boil an egg or dress Romaine. Again, one imagines he has learned the hard way (in his lexicon, that would be a pun), from having had to confront canned vegetables, soggy salads, and tough meat over the years in order to participate in an active social life, because what profiteth it a fairy who cannot fly? It is mainly in these prefaces the author indulges his penchant for allusion, metaphor, and outrageous pun--camp talk, in other words--a language Carlos Fuentes described (in quite a different context) as "that way of speaking without ever referring to things directly, as if the [straight] names of things burned the tongue a little."

But when he settles down to instruction, his directions are sensible and clear and, as we've said, his recipes are varied and often surprising. Followed from beginning to end, THE GAY OF COOKING ought to teach anyone not only to cook but to be at least moderately flamboyant about it. KF has flair (do you remember that scene in The Gay Deceivers with Michael Greer whirling around the kitchen?), however, being also a born teacher, he holds it in check. Most of the time.

KF assumes a few givens, of course: that his readers understand the elevated preparation of drink and food is a kind of theatre, that partaking of the finished product with friends, or tricks, is an event of deep social and erotic significance, and that everyone owns a quality steel knife and a Cuisinart. This is, after all, not a course in charring steaks on a backyard grill by which means lesser men delude themselves into believing they are "cooking."

It is, rather, a book thoughtfully arranged for speed, accuracy, variety, taste, and fun. A nice addition to the kitchen shelf.

PHOENIX

My focus this month is on the rest of Phoenix's Patlar Gazette distributors. There is so much to be said about each of these places and so little space that hopefully our readers will be curious enough to come and check these places out themselves.

"Grubbies, diamonds, and gold" aptly describe an atmosphere being created by Buddies (formerly The Alternative). The bar is being remodeled to reflect an attitude of comfortable western elegance. Dennis and crew have included touches of stained glass, brass, wood, and graphics of the southwest to enhance already comfortable surroundings. New stand-up bars along with the return of the poolroom have been added for patrons' comfort and convenience.

A few miles south of Buddies in downtown Phoenix are two very active and fun places to drink. Cruisin Central, the second stop on this Phoenix bar tour, is always full of people having fun. Specials include a Sunday rooftop barbeque and beer bust, 2-for-1 well drinks on Saturdays until 2 pm, and a daily happy hour until 7 pm. All of this along with Rob's Kitchen, serving delicious food until 10 pm.

Just up the street is the oldest bar of its kind in Phoenix, Little Jim's 307. Completely redecorated a few years ago, Little Jim's is busy every hour it is open. The patrons are loyal and are attended by friendly, efficient employees. The 307 boasts a wall mural and panels painted years ago by famed Arizona and Southwestern artist Ted De Grazia. These have been restored and preserved and certainly are the source of many conversations.

Phoenix's McDowell Rd. has many times been labeled the "gay strip" because of the abundance of gay bars on it. Trax, "the cruise bar," is considered to be the most popular bar in Phoenix as voted by the gay community. Noted for Full Moon parties, and a Sunday Beer Bust that packs them in to the rafters, Trax always offers events that are unforgettable. Surely its label as "the cruise bar" is well deserved because Trax is noted for attracting some of the hottest and best looking men anywhere.

Tommy and Clyde's has long been noted for its 50-cent booze and cruise on Thursday nights and its ever-popular male strip contest Wednesday nights. And now a new dimension has been added: the Sons of Apollo, a motorcycle club, call Tommy and Clyde's home. The tasteful surroundings make patrons feel comfortable, uninhibited, and ready to have a good time.

I hope the last two issues have given readers some idea of what Phoenix gay life offers. Plan to come try it out for yourselves; we'd love to meet you!

The newly formed Arizona Lesbian Gay Task Force has announced the 3rd annual Lesbian and Gay Human Rights March and Rally to be held Saturday, June 25, 1983.

The Phoenix Civic Plaza will be the rally site. The Phoenix Police Department has granted the permit for this year's march route, which is: Central Ave south from Osborn to McDowell, 1st Street to Adams and Adams to Civic Plaza. State Representative David Clarenbach, D-WI, author and initiator of Assembly Bill 70, which made Wisconsin the first and only state to grant civil rights to the Lesbian and Gay community, will serve as keynote speaker.

This year the march theme is "Uniting for Freedom, Recognition, and Understanding." A crowd exceeding 2,000 is expected.

She is planning a record release in the near future, so remember the name Debbie Foster.

Then on the following Friday, May 13, don't miss the PR Room's "Grand Opening/Friday the Thirteenth Party." Food will be served all evening, and Savage, a Bay Area Rock and Roll band, will play. (No cover.)

And don't forget that on Saturday, May 21, there'll be "Take It Off," a night for the boys featuring Mark St. Helens, a male stripper. ($3 cover.)

If you'd like to be on the PR Room's mailing list, send your name and address to PR Room, 536 Soscol, Napa, CA 94558.

LAKE COUNTY

We are still here regardless of what you heard: we in Lake County would like to say "congratulations" to the PATLAR GAZETTE for reaching their goal, a job well done. Spring is on its way, the red buds are in full bloom, wild flowers are covering the hills, the trees are showing their colors, lawns are getting brighter, time to get out the rakes and lawn mowers and clean up the mess from the winter months. You know it is spring when the Valley Knights get their yard sale on the way. Looking forward to the Clear Lake Run. Fun, fun. It has been a long winter and the resorts are getting ready for a good hot summer, with lots of hot men. Now for the news. Gene at Sunset Point Resort has informed me that things are taking shape at the Point, the bar should be ready to go in about three or four weeks and the food is going to be there again. New ideas are planned for the whole resort. A lot of hard work has gone into it getting it ready. Good work, Gene. The Cabaret is getting out the hammers, saws, and brooms; spring cleaning is on the way there. Many new ideas for the summer. Brunch is being served every Sunday from 11 am to 1 pm, with Chef Chuck in the kitchen. He does a good job: come to the Cabaret for Sunday brunch--it's free. Al is your bartender during the day and Bill will see that you have a good time in the evening. Scotty is still playing with his organ (???), getting better. If you have plans of doing any water skiing this summer and don't know how to find a boat to use, Don at the Cabaret will be glad to be of help. He has ski boat rentals at a very reasonable rate, or if you just want to go out for a cruise (!!!) around the lake, Don will be your guide. Just call (707) 998-1169 for more information. Starlite Resort is busy getting things back in order, can't wait to get the hottub going full steam ahead!! Mt. View Deli is still putting out great sandwiches, David is doing a wonderful job and is looking forward to seeing all his friends again this year. It seems like more and more people are wanting to move up to God's country and there are some good deals now. If you would like more information call Chuck at the Cabaret. For fun, sun, relaxing, hiking, biking, peace and quiet, come to Clear Lake and enjoy yourself. See you here.

MODESTO

Modesto now has a gay softball team. Called the Modesto Braves, it is sponsored by the Brave Bull. It is open to lesbian and gay people and their friends. It provides an opportunity to play slow-pitch softball and is a charter member of the new Central Valley Sports Association. Plans include joining NAGAA, an umbrella organization covering all gay sporting groups. The valley league so far has teams in Fresno, Modesto, and Sacramento.

Games will be played on most Sundays this spring and summer, starting April 10. Practices are held Thursdays at 3:30 pm, and Sundays at 1 pm at Costa Field in Ceres, corner of Garrison and Moffet roads. Additional information may be obtained by calling Rod at (209) 521-9265.

The first fundraising event of 1983 for Stanislaus Gay Alliance (SGA) was held March 26 and was another success! Enough money was raised to publish the SGA Newsletter for the next two or three months. Approximately 300 attended the dance and seemingly had an enjoyable evening.

SGA is a support group for area gays and friends of gays. It provides activities and services to men and women 18 years of age or older.

STOCKTON

Upcoming gay events during May in the Stockton community include:

Friday May 6

The opening of the Boot Strap, 8 pm, Aurora and Channel

Friday May 13, 7 pm

Metropolitan Community Church Art Auction at the First Unitarian Church, 2737 Pacific Avenue.

Stockton is planning a float in the Gay Pride Parade in San Francisco. A flat bed truck or trailer is needed. Call (209) 466-2277.

Now, you can make it pay, as much as $500 extra each month. And, at the same time, you'll be helping to contribute to the health and welfare of other gay men and women.

HOW?

Your blood plasma contains various amounts of antibodies or antigens which are used in research and the production of a new Vaccine against hepatitis. A simple hour and a half procedure, whereby we extract your valuable plasma, is all it takes to put money in your pocket and help other gay people as well.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA

SAN FRANCISCO

Colorful People and Places, a lesbian and gay guide to more than 1,000 minority groups, bars, magazines, and other resources, has just been published by the Quarterly Press in San Francisco. "Most people don't realize it, but there's a whole world of interracial and Third World social groups and clubs the gay/lesbian mainstream knows nothing about," the guide's author, Michael J. Smith explained.

A special feature of the heavily annotated guide is an extensive historical section discussing groups and bars of the past, such as Joe's Deluxe, a black showbar in Chicago during the 1940s; Wally Hodgers, an interracial bar in Atlanta popular during the early 1960s; Hazel Valentine's, a buffet flat in Harlem during the 1920s; and the Rounders, a black men's and women's social group in Washington, D.C., ca 1965-1975.

The guide, $10 ($12 overseas), is available directly from the Quarterly Press, 279 Collingwood, San Francisco, CA 94114.

Lesbian Mothers are on the move in the Bay Area. In December, at a forum "How Gay is Gay?" called by Wages Due Lesbians, Lesbian Mothers spoke out angrily about the conditions in their lives which they believe keep them invisible and totally ignored by the gay and women's movements. Fear of losing custody of children, lack of money, isolation, and financial inability to afford a social life and pay for child care, and the poor quality of child care were some of the concerns raised by mothers at the meeting.

A Day in the Park for lesbian mothers, their children, mothers, friends, and lovers will be held on the Saturday after Mothers Day, and organized by Wages Due Lesbians.

The gathering is to get across the message that Mothers Day is for Lesbian Mothers, too. Not all mothers are straight, white, and married. There are many mothers who are single, lesbian, and black, Native American, and Third World.

The Day in the Park will be on Saturday, May 14, from noon to 5 pm at Elk Glen Meadow in Golden Gate Park. Participants should bring a lunch. Games and barbecue pits are available. If it rains, the event will be rescheduled to May 22.

For additional information, write c/o P.O. Box 14512, San Francisco, CA 94114, phone (415) 558-9628.

CONTRA COSTA

A Contra Costa County chapter of Man Two Man will be started shortly. The organization is designed to provide men a way to meet and form same-gender friendships.

A program is being planned which will enable men in the Contra Costa area to socialize weekly. Details have not been completely worked out; however, men who are interested may obtain additional information by calling (916) 391-9755, or by writing P.O. Box 22402, Sacramento, CA 95822.

PALO ALTO

The Gay and Lesbian Alliance at Stanford (GLAS) has scheduled the second annual celebration of GAY FAMILY DAY on Saturday, May 7. Members of lesbian/gay community and their friends are encouraged to bring their children, their parents, and other members of their biological and non-biological families for an afternoon of picnicking and play on the beautiful Stanford University campus.

Entertainment will be provided by the San Francisco Gay Freedom Day Marching Band and Twirling Corps, San Francisco Pageantry Ensemble, Skip Barrett and the Foggy City Squares, the Barbary Coast Cloggers, plus special surprise guests. Activities will include folkdancing, volleyball, basketball, Earthball and New Earth games, special treats for the children, and much more.

Community participation will be the key to the success of GAY FAMILY DAY. GLAS is eager to hear from groups who would like to form a basketball or volleyball team, lead a folkdance, entertain as clowns, acrobats, or magicians, organize a game for the children, etc.

GAY FAMILY DAY is part of the annual observance of Gay and Lesbian Awareness Week on campus, and will be held at Stanford's Wilbur Field beginning at 12 noon. Bring a picnic lunch, a blanket to sit on, and chairs for older family members. Because admission will be free, GLAS is relying on voluntary donations to help cover expenses.

For more information contact Ray Baxter at (415) 359-6863 or leave a message at the GLAS office at (415) 497-1488.

CONCORD

The Center, located at 1818 Colfax Avenue, Concord, CA, telephone (415) 674-0171, presents the following services.

A rap group is being planned for women on May 15, 7 to 9 pm. Plans for social activities, special seminars, and discussion topics will be developed.

The Friday Night Rap Support Group, which meets at 8 pm, for men has set the following program:

- May 6 Open Topic: on-the-spot rap...What's on Your Mind?
- May 13 Defensive Walls: Protection and Barrier
- May 20 Movie Night: Flicks with Friends
- May 27 Dealing with a Loss

NEW MEXICO

A gay and lesbian organization has been formed in Las Cruces, New Mexico. The group, known as Lambda Las Cruces, has approximately 40 members and a 60-person mailing list.

Lambda Las Cruces is organized to provide social and support group activities and is dedicated to forming a cohesive base network for homosexuals in the Las Cruces vicinity.

In addition to holding several social and public-service events, the organization has begun its own newsletter call The Lambda Gayzette.

Lambda Las Cruces has a telephone information line for events of interest to gays and lesbians in the Las Cruces area. Recorded information regarding events can be received by calling (505) 526-5275 in Las Cruces.

A weekly brunch is held every Sunday at 10:30 am at the Village Inn in Las Cruces. Upcoming plans include a Coffee House to be held during the third week of April.

For more information, write Lambda Las Cruces, U.P.B. 4132, University Park, New Mexico 88003.

The sixth annual Mr. Gay New Mexico Pageant promises to be the most successful pageant of its kind ever held in Albuquerque, according to its sponsors.

Between 500 and 600 people are expected to attend, and this year's pageant will include more contestants than any previous contest.

Contestants for the title of Mr. Gay New Mexico will be judged on the basis of their personality and appearance. Contestants will be judged using a point system with maximum points of 35 for personal interviews, 15 for casual wear, and 25 for both swim wear and formal wear. There will be five judges.

In addition to the contestants, Carmen del Rio, a professional female impersonator from Las Vegas, Nevada and Naomi Simms, Miss Gay Universe 1981 and Texas Entertainer of the Year 1981/82, will be on hand to entertain.

OHIO

Ohio Governor Richard Celeste told representatives of the Gay/Lesbian community that the Celeste administration is committed to move expeditiously on civil-rights matters for the Ohio Lesbian/Gay community. The ½-hour meeting was productive and extremely friendly.

The meeting was scheduled as a follow-up to the 1982 gubernatorial campaign in which Celeste won the endorsement of Stonewall Union (Columbus) and Eleanor Roosevelt Democratic Club (Cleveland). In the race for governor, Celeste enjoyed strong backing from the Gay and Lesbian community both in the Democratic primary and the general election.

There is an attempt being made to establish a local social group for gay couples in Cincinnati. Interested couples should write the Yellow Page, c/o Dept. 22, P.O. Box 5009, Cincinnati, OH 45205. If there's enough interest, the first meeting will take place soon.

The Gay Community Switchboard for Cincinnati is open Monday through Friday, 7 pm to 11 pm. The telephone number is (513) 221-7800. Information and referrals to various groups are available.

MONTANA

A social group is being formed in the Billings area. To receive a copy of the first newsletter, "A Different Drummer," contact Kelly at (406) 652-4577 or David at (406) 248-4567.

GALVESTON

The Galveston Metropolitan Community Church opened a coffee house. Information about location and hours of operation may be obtained from the MCC.

MINNESOTA

Congratulations! The Minnesota Lesbian/Gay Committee of the International Gay Olympic Association has been informed that Minnesota has successfully presented its case to be the site of the International 1986 Lesbian/Gay Winter Olympic Games. The news sped through the community at an unprecedented rate. The ML/GC-IGOA has expressed its deep gratitude to the many people from all over the nation who helped.

OKLAHOMA

A statewide softball league has been organized in order to respond to the needs for diversified interests among the gay/lesbian community. The league, dubbed Sooner Softball League, will start regularly scheduled games with a tournament over Memorial Day weekend. Details will be announced later.

So far, the following teams are signed: Furry Faggots, Heartbreakers, OHR Blueboys, Tim's Outlaws, Tracy's Angels, and at least two teams from the Oklahoma City-Norman area that are yet to be announced.

The league will be structured according to regulations suggested by the North American Gay Amateur Athletic Alliance (NAGAAA). Anyone interested in sponsoring a team, becoming a player, or working in some phase of the program may contact wither John at (918) 492-7247 or Dale at (918) 622-0396.

HOUSTON

The Montrose Symphonic Band & Chorale is gearing up for Gay Pride Week and needs able-bodied men and women to fill the ranks of their Flag Corps, Color Guard, and Drill Team. Ability to play a musical instrument is not required. Call (713) 527-9454 for details.

More volunteers are needed for the Gay & Lesbian Archives of Texas. Contact Richard on Wednesdays at (713) 529-7014 between 2:45 and 5:45 pm.

The men's chorus, The Montrose Singers, rehearses every Monday night 7:30 pm in the choir room of Bering Memorial Methodist Church, 1440 Harold. For more information, call (713) 749-2832 (days) or 791-9496 (evenings).

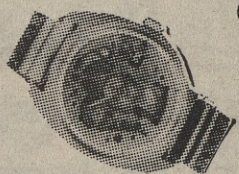

The Gay Switchboard of Houston offers current-event information, telephone counseling, referrals, and AIDS hotline. Volunteers are always welcome to inquire. Call (713) 529-3211.

Miller says that, as a result of these recent Government findings, his company will now begin to devote more of its resources toward making the Gay community more aware of the seriousness of the overall health issues relating to Gays.

"I feel that there is a significant need to educate the Gay community in the areas of overall health issues and, in the second half of 1983, we will begin a major advertising campaign aimed at doing just that."

SAN DIEGO

The First Annual North American Gay Volleyball Association (NAGVA) International Championship Tournament is set for Memorial Day Weekend, Saturday and Sunday, May 28 & 29, 1983. It will be held at the Federal Building Gymnasium, Balboa Park, San Diego, California.

It is anticipated that 24 to 30 Gay Volleyball teams from the U.S., Canada, and Mexico will converge on San Diego to battle it out for the coveted title of International Gay Volleyball Champs. Teams are expected from Milwaukee, Denver, Houston, Dallas, San Jose, San Diego, Seattle, San Francisco, Phoenix, New York, Los Angeles, Mexico, Vancouver, Sacramento, New Orleans, Washington, D.C., and Cincinnati.

Teams or organizations interested in participating in this event should contact Bill Sowell, 3939 Fifth Ave, #5, San Diego, CA 92103, or call at (619) 295-4531. If more information is needed concerning the NAGVA Tournament, please contact the Publicity Chairman, Steve Charette, at (619) 274-8186.

ARKANSAS

Arkansas Gay Rights (AGR) has selected the theme of "Gay Power, Gay Pride" for its 1983 Gay Pride Week festivities. A victory rally is planned for 2 pm on the Capitol Steps in Little Rock on June 18; a foot race, MCC church service, a pool party, and a review, all on Sunday, June 19. In addition, a gay art show, feminism workshop, an organizational workshop, a gay-relationships workshop, and an AIDS workshop are scheduled for June 20.

There will be a gay memorial service, another review, a Mr. Gay Pride contest (at Discovery II) and an awards banquet, to be held throughout the rest of the week.

SEATTLE

Lesbian and gay Seventh-day Adventists will attend a Memorial Day weekend conference in Seattle, May 27-30, 1983. The four-day Northwest Orionfest '83 is being sponsored by Orion Fellowship Alliance, Inc., an international organization for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transsexual persons of Adventist backgrounds.

Northwest Orionfest '83 will feature small, informal workshops to encourage interaction and communication of idea and experiences. These sessions of sharing will form the basis for personal and collective growth.

In addition to the workshops, a variety of recreational and social activities are scheduled. Participation in Northwest Orionfest '83 is open to all interested persons.

Anyone interested in more information about the Northwest Orionfest '83, or Orion Fellowship Alliance, may write the organization's headquarters: Orion Fellowship Alliance, Inc., P.O. Box 4768, San Francisco, CA 94101.

FIRST, MY HAT IS OFF TO CORONATION '83. BILL & DOUG, YOU "DONE" A VERY GOOD JOB FOR THE GAY COMMUNITY OVER THE PAST YEAR. KEN & LORETTA (NEW EMPEROR & EMPRESS), YOU HAVE A TOUGH ACT TO FOLLOW. MY BEST WISHES AND CONGRATULATIONS GO OUT TO YOU. I WOULD LIKE TO COMMEND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF GNIE FOR A JOB WELL DONE IN PLANNING THE EVENTS. USUALLY CORONATIONS BORE ME BECAUSE OF THEIR SHEER LENGTH, BUT THIS TIME THINGS WERE RIGHT ON...OH, BY THE WAY, ATTENTION, WHEN YOU SPEAK TO ME NOW, REMEMBER, YOU ARE SPEAKING TO ROYALTY. I AM NOW TO BE ADDRESSED AS "HIS ROYAL MAJESTY IMPERIAL EMPEROR XII"; THAT'S RIGHT, GNIE BESTOWED THIS TITLE UPON ME AT CORONATION '83. SO NOW, A LITTLE RESPECT IF YOU PLEASE. AND THIS IS FOR LIFE. REMEMBER THAT...BY THE TIME YOU READ THIS ARTICLE, THE POWER PLANT WILL BE IN POSSESSION OF THEIR LIQUOR LICENSE. GOOD LUCK AXEL...ALSO, THE CLUB 21 WILL SOON BE IN THEIR NEW BUILDING (THE OLD VANGARI'S) LOCATED AT 20TH & K. FROM WHAT I HAVE HEARD THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE, IT'S GOING TO BE A SHOWPLACE. SO LET'S ALL BE THERE TO WATCH IT BLOSSOM...OUR BEST GOES OUT TO DON & RICH, FOR SHARING WITH US THEIR COMMITMENT VOWS TO EACH OTHER. I HOPE YOU GUYS HAVE A LONG AND LASTING RELATIONSHIP TOGETHER... FIRST GAY SOFTBALL GAME WILL BE PLAYED MAY DAY. CHECK THE BARS FOR TIME AND SCHEDULE. AND LET'S GET OUT THERE AND SUPPORT OUR TEAM...MIKE PRATT & THE REST OF THE BARTENDERS AT THE FORUM ARE DOING A SPLENDID JOB. GO OUT AND SAY HI...STOPPING BY THE BROADWAY LTD SOON? GOOD. FEAST YOUR EYES ON THE POOL ROOM. FRANK HAS DONE IT AGAIN. I LIKE WHAT HE DID TO THE WALLS. IT'S LIKE A NEW ROOM. COMING UP SOON AT THE BWY/LTD, A NEW LIGHTING DESIGN...SPEAKING OF A NEW LOOK, WAIT TILL YOU SEE THE MERCANTILE PATIO. THANKS TO ALL THE COMMUNITY HELP, WE NOW HAVE A CLEAN, WELL-GROOMED PATIO. BUT YOU HAVEN'T SEEN ANYTHING YET. WAIT TIL THIS SUMMER...CHECK WITH BOJANGLES, THEY ARE HAVING SOME GOOD SHOWS OUT THERE. REAL SOLID!!!!...THE DIAMOND BUTTERFLY HAS HAD TWO FUN PARTIES SINCE LAST I TALKED TO YOU. EVERYONE IS STILL TALKING ABOUT THAT NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY IN APRIL...THE AIDS K/S FOUNDATION LOCATED AT 2115 "J" ST., SUITE #3, IS BEGINNING TO LOOK LIKE HOME. STOP BY ANYTIME AND SAY HELLO TO NORMAN. THE K/S FOUNDATION THANKS YOU ALL FOR CONTINUAL SUPPORT...FOR ALL YOU FANS WHO HAVE BEEN ASKING ABOUT THAT MAD WOMAN FROM AUSTRALIA, KATIE, SHE IS ALIVE AND WELL, AND

I DO MEAN WELL, & WORKING AT THE INCREDIBLE EDIBLE PLACE. GOOD TO HAVE YOU THERE, HON. WE THOUGHT WE HAD LOST YOU...OUR OWN JIM LADLER (THE ROSE) HAS ADDED A NEW DIMENSION TO EATING OUT. HE IS NOW SERVING DINNERS ON FRIDAY & SAT. EVENINGS, 5:30 TIL 9:30. THE SAME QUALITY FOOD AS HIS LUNCHES...I SURE HAD A GOOD TIME AT THE PARKING LOT THE OTHER EVENING. THE SHOW WAS A KNOCKOUT. GOOD TO SEE MY OLD FAVORITE MIXOLOGISTS ON THE RAILS... COMING UP FOR YOUR ENTERTAINMENT: I AM HAVING MY TENTH ANNUAL MOTHER JEFFREY,

MOTHER OF THE YEAR AWARD, MAY 8, AT THE MERCANTILE SALOON, STARTING AT 1 PM, THERE WILL BE ENTERTAINMENT, BARBEQUED CHICKEN & RIBS, FLEA MARKET, RAFFLES, AND THE MOTHER OF THE YEAR AWARD. ONE OF THE HIGHLIGHTS WILL BE "THE BIG RAFFLE." AUNT RACHEL'S 1972 COUPE DE VILLE (AS IS). TICKETS ARE AVAILABLE AT MOST OF THE BARS. ALL PROCEEDS WILL GO TO THE AIDS K/S FOUNDATION OF SACRAMENTO...LEN NELSON & MIKE WALKER ARE RUNNING SEVERAL ADS IN THIS MONTH'S PATLAR GAZETTE, BUT PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE VODOO DOLL. THIS COULD BE A GOOD WAY TO GET EVEN WITH THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE, OR FOR JUST A GOOD GAG. ALL ITEMS SOLD BY THIS COMPANY WILL GENERATE A DONATION TO AIDS. COME ON GUYS, WITH A DEAL LIKE THIS, WE CAN RAISE A LOT OF MONEY TO HELP BEAT AIDS...FLASH::FLASH::BOBBETTE (MERC) IS NOW A BASKET CASE. WHY DON'T YOU TRY A SIDE CAR. DWAIN (THE ROSE) HAS NOW SWITCHED TO DIET PEPSI. RANDY (MERC), WITH ALL THE STORMS THAT WE HAVE BEEN HAVING WHICH HAVE PLAYED HAVOC WITH BEEHIVES, THEN I SEE YOU WEARING ONE! MARK, MY LOVE, WHAT IS THIS SPECIAL THING ABOUT GETTING SOMEONE TO SLEEP WITH YOU ON EASTER SUNDAY. ARE YOU STARTING A FAD? MIKE L. (BWY/LTD), YOUR OSCAR NIGHT PARTY WAS A HOOT. I HEARD EVERY WORD OF IT. REMEMBER, JOHN, AFTER A NIGHT OF UNABASHED, ANYTHING-GOES SEX, IT'S RIDICULOUS TO TELL A TRICK IN THE MORNING, "DON'T USE MY TOOTHBRUSH." MAUDETTE, (INCR. ED.), YOU DEFY ALL SENSE OF GRAVITY IN HIGH HEELS. TILT. LAKISH (MERC), THE WEARING OF A LARGE COWBOY HAT, WITH A PROMINENT FEATHER? BOB J., QUAALUDES ARE NOT A BREAKFAST CEREAL. BILL (DON'T WORRY, I AM NOT GOING TO GIVE YOUR LAST NAME), REMEMBER, THE BEST LUBRICANTS ARE: CRISCO, VASELINE, KY, BUTTER, ETC. BUT YOU NEVER, ABSOLUTELY EVER USE TOOTHPASTE, UNLESS OF COURSE IT CONTAINS "FLUORIDE." MARCI (MERC), REMEMBER, A MEANINGFUL RELATIONSHIP SHOULD LAST LONGER THAN FORTY MINUTES, SO YOU'VE GOT TIME TO SPARE, BABY. ANNA (MERC), REMEMBER, LOVE MEANS NEVER HAVING TO SAY "MAY I HAVE A CHIVAS & WATER, PLEASE!!!" BRUCELLA, DO MY EYES DECEIVE ME? THIS IS FOR REAL? LOOK'S LIKE WEDDING BELLS ARE IN ORDER. A NICE CHOICE I MUST SAY. HOPE EVERYTHING WORKS OUT FINE FOR YOU. YOU DESERVE THIS ONE. GO FOR IT. BERNIE (CLUB 21), DON'T YOU KNOW THAT EACH YEAR THOUSANDS OF HOMOSEXUALS DIE FROM HEAT STROKE CAUSED BY WEARING FULL LEATHER WHEN THE TEMPERATURE EXCEEDS 80 DEGREES? I MUST SAY, THOUGH, YOU FILLED IT OUT AND THEN SOME! WRECK ROOM, YOUR KICK-OFF PARTY FOR THE SOFTBALL LEAGUE WAS A BLAST. EVON (CLUB 21), YOU ARE BREAKING HEARTS. DAVE P., IF YOU DON'T KNOW THE SYMBOLISM OF A RED HANDKERCHIEF, FOR GOD'S SAKE, DON'T WEAR ONE. I'VE GOT TO GO NOW, SEE YA IN JUNE.

MAN TWO MAN

Now there is another way for men to meet and socialize. (There is nothing wrong with the traditional ways: bars, baths, beaches, bookstores, bushes, and bathrooms.). Man Two Man is a social group for men who want to get to know other men and develop friendships with them while sharing interesting life experiences.

The Wednesday evening social programs provide the basic way in which the participants meet. The programs start at 7:30 pm weekly and last about 2-2½ hours. An introductory period is included each week to help make men who have not attended previously feel comfortable. In recent weeks the introductory program has included a wine-tasting contest presented by Silver Lion Presentations, an address by Dr. Harvey Thompson on AIDS, and other discussions. A $2 donation is requested from each participant to defray operating expenses. A door prize of 2 tickets to a local theater is also included.

In addition, Movies at Home nights are scheduled twice a month in a home. Movies are selected for showing which reflect the interests of the persons attending the show. Finally, members of the group schedule special events periodically including dinners and trips to various places such as Angel Island and Calaveras Big Trees.

So, if you want to try the man's way to meet men—come on down!

The calendar of events is shown below. For additional information, call (916) 391-9755.

LEGISLATION INTRODUCED IN SACRAMENTO

Legislation was introduced by Tom Bates (D-Oakland) to help strengthen the legal ability of gay people to protect themselves from violence. The bill, AB848, would add the words "sexual orientation" to that section of the Unruh Civil Rights Act which establishes the right to be free from violence, or from intimidation by threat of violence.

"It is inexcusable that a group of individuals should be regularly attacked on the basis of their sexual orientation," said Bates. "Our streets should be safe for everyone, yet gay people in some areas have found themselves the object of systematic attack, harassment, and intimidation, often with little protection or right of recourse. This bill will provide a usable right of legal recourse."

The Unruh Civil Rights Act provides for a civil cause of action against anyone who would deprive another person of his/her right to be free from violence and intimidation, on the basis of race, religion, sex, national origin, or position in a labor dispute. Adding "sexual orientation"

WOMAN TWO WOMAN

The new social group for women is developing very well. The group was established by Patlar Enterprises in March 1983 to provide an additional way for women to meet and socialize.

Woman Two Woman meets weekly on Mondays. The social program starts at 7:30 pm and lasts 2-2½ hours; an introductory program is included. Upcoming events are shown below.

The group meets at 2771 24th Street, Sacramento. A $2 donation is requested to defray operating expenses.

For additional information, call (916) 391-9755.

to this section would give gay individuals a cause of action for damages plus $10,000 if they can show that violence was committed against them on the basis of their sexual orientation. It would also allow them to petition the courts for preventive relief from patterns of violence, threats of violence, and intimidation.

"The right to be free from violence is certainly a basic civil right and must be the bottom line for any group of people in a civilized society," Bates said. "This bill achieves the precise purpose the act was originally designed for: to help stop violence and intimidation against people on the basis of association or background."

SPRING FLING

Are you ready for a Spring fling? Do your day dreams find you walking along the bluffs of Point Reyes, hiking on a Sierra ridge overlooking Lake Tahoe, or climbing a volcano at Lassen?

There are hundreds of interesting sights to see only a short distance away. You can even begin right here in River City. Playing tourist is a fun way to greet spring and experience what's new and exciting.

SILVER LION SYSTEM in conjunction with THE PATLAR GAZETTE are offering tours with distinction by luxury van or light aircraft. Our tours are tailored to your fancy in small intimate groups. Instead of trying to be the first on the travel market, SILVER LION SYSTEM set out to be best. A tough assignment indeed. But we weren't satisfied just to be another tour service. Be sure to ask about our doorstep-to-doorstep transportation service when you call for reservations.

Give us your challenge, whether it's a sparkling weekend tour or a trip to the South Pole. Or if you simply want the broad experience and dedication of the travel industries acknowledged leader, select your own personal fling from the scheduled tours listed here for May and June. Prices include all fares, entrance fees and enroute service. Details available upon inquiry.

PEOPLE BY KRIS

"Joey"

Joey, the DJ "in the truck" at Anna Marie's out in West Sacramento, recently consented to be interviewed by Kris. Here's Joey, out of the truck.

K: How long have you been a DJ?

J: Anna Marie's proved to me that I am a DJ. Anna Marie's is the dream of my life. The first time I went there it was The Hut. The DJ, a male, was working those boys. I said to myself if I could ever be in that truck I know

I could rock a room full of women. It's thrilling to have the chance to do just that. I'm in heaven.

K: How'd you get the job?

J: Another woman was supposed to do it, and I was just going to fill in until she was 21. It didn't work out, so I'm still there.

K: What kind of training have you had?

J: Every bar I go into, I talk with the DJ. I've talked with some of the best DJs, both male and female. Mostly, I've taught myself.

K: How do you prepare for an evening, use tapes?

J: Don't run tapes. I play every song. Friday is low key. Saturday nights I like to get there early so I can watch the crowd come in. That helps me prepare. If I know it's going to be packed, I'm jazzed. I can't wait to get started.

K: You take a look at your crowd...

J: Certain people like certain things. I look at the crowd; if everyone isn't partying, I refer to Corky; Corky's my backbone in that booth. Actually, Corky does the lights.

K: You talk a lot about listening to what women like to hear, you don't care about men?

J: I care about men, but I am a woman. All the years going out, it was always to men's bars. And we women finally have a bar of our own.

K: Have you ever bombed?

J: Yes. I used to think I bombed every Friday night. But Fridays have now come to be fun night.

K: You made the statement that when you first started out there weren't many women to teach you. You're a woman DJ. Is this sort of a life statement for a woman?

J: Hmmm, that's heavy. This is something I've wanted to do all my life. Maybe I'm making the statement like look you other women who want to do this, see you can do this too.

K: You rehearse on Thursdays, do you write down a sequence of songs?

J: I play my music in sets. A set of top 40, then I break it down with two slow songs, then I'll play a set of rock-n-roll. Then a set of down beat, funk-type music. Sometimes I have trouble with those sets. I'll say, Corky, this is not working. I can put a record on that's a jam, but if I'm not playing it at the right time of the evening, it's not going to get the full effect I wanted it to get because I played it too early or too late.

K: What do you need to get better at?

J: Mixing. There's a technique, a certain way to do it. I want to be good at it.

CROSSROAD FROM P. 13 OREGON

The Klamath Gay Union has existed several years. There are approximately 12 regular participants meeting weekly. Although many of the participants change, there is steady growth in understanding and trust. The group includes men and women of all ages: teachers, white-collar, and agricultural workers, Democrats and Republicans, and every other variety of human being that is found in American gay culture at large.

The group offers educational, supportive, social, and cultural events. It is open to all and meetings are held on Mondays, 8 pm. For additional information, write P.O. Box 7474, Klamath Falls, OR 97601.
